I certify that all of the application materials for the Joint APA Ethics and Division 44 Student Travel Award submitted by me are true to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that any significant misstatement in, or omission from, this application may be cause for denial of selection or revocation of the travel award. I authorize members of the Joint APA Ethics and Division 44 Student Travel Award selection committee to consult with the author of my recommendation form. I release from liability all representatives of the APA Ethics Office, APA Ethics Committee, and APA Division 44 for acts performed in good faith and without malice in connection with evaluating my application materials.

I further understand that it is my responsibility to inform the Joint APA Ethics and Division 44 Student Travel Award selection committee of any changes in my status with my academic program, American Psychological Association of Graduate Students (APAGS) membership, plans to attend the 2009 National Multicultural Summit, or plans to present any research at the convention that may occur prior to the 2009 National Multicultural Summit.

If I am awarded the Joint APA Ethics and Division 44 Student Travel Award, I agree to (a) attend the awards ceremony; (b) meet with the APA Ethics Committee Chair during the 2009 NMCS as arranged prior to the conference; (c) submit a 300-500 word essay about intersections of ethics and diversity issues that are addressed during the conference to the APA Ethics Committee Chair and the Division 44 Newsletter Editor by March 16, 2009 (more specific instructions about the essay will be provided upon award notification); and (d) agree to the use of my name and photographic likeness in APA Ethics Office, Ethics Committee, and Division 44 materials including, but not limited to, website, newsletters, and brochures.
